

The Gallery 2018 is finished!

After two years of construction work, the gallery 2018 is finished. Several new experiments are now starting. Some images to illustrate the work accomplished: the excavation of the gallery, the geological mapping and the photogrammetric modelling, application of shotcrete and measurements to determine the shotcrete thickness. The final result is the geological map of the new gallery.

